AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

FAI Hall of Fame

Norman Pritchard, UK, posthumously, 1929-2004

An ardent archivist and ballooning historian, Pritchard was instrumental in the founding of the British Balloon Museum and Library in 1979. He served as Secretary of the Museum for 20 years and also was Vice President in 1998. He authored a number of books including the BBAC (British Balloon and Airship Club) Competition Handbook in 1994. He traveled internationally serving as a competition official in more than 16 events and was the observer for the Lindstrand, Branson, Fossett around the world attempt.

Accepting the honor for him was his son Jeremy and grandson Solomon.

Paolo Bonanno, Italy, 1944 -

His first flight was in 1980 in a home-built balloon. Today he is considered an expert in balloon burner design and construction as well as safety equipment, i.e. the Bonanno quick release and the Sirocco burner. He designed and built the burners that powered all of the Cameron Rozier balloons in the 1992 Chrysler TransAtlantic balloon Race. He has competed in every Italian Nationals and won 7 times.
